TICKET SALES GOOD; BIG TIME ASSURED

BIG SAVING ON SEASON TICKETS SHOWN BY THE SCHEDULE

Cameron Chautauqua will open at 2:45 Thursday afternoon. The local committees have set Thursday as the time to check in and find themselves over the top.

The several teams of men are running competition with each other to make the territory assigned to them the best. You will help a great deal toward that end if after having been called on by them you will phone them and get your tickets.

Chautauqua is a Cameron institution that has brought pleasure to its audiences for fifteen consecutive years. Mr. Horner used these words in the meeting of audience workers in Ardmore, Oklahoma, on Sunday: "Cameron? Why, Cameron is one of my darling towns. Those men down there are gentlemen."

We know that the citizens of Cameron are going to support these men by coming to them for season tickets. Adult season tickets are $2.50.

When a total is made; single admissions as follows:

- 1st afternoon $ .25
1st evening .50
2nd afternoon .25
2nd evening .75
3rd afternoon .25
3rd evening .50
4th afternoon .25
4th evening .75
5th afternoon .25
5th evening .50
6th afternoon .25
6th evening $1.00

Total $5.50

One sees there is a saving of $3.00 in buying a season ticket. Now add the single admissions beginning with the fourth evening and you have $2.75. There will be a saving of 25c after the fourth afternoon and there will be the "Fine Feathers," "Viviana's Hawaiians," and "The Firefly" after that time.

All season ticket money applies on the Cameron contract, while only 25 per cent of single admissions go to them.

SCHUHMACHER DEFEATS NORTH END LEADERS

THIRTEEN RUNS AND 11 HITS—TOO MUCH FOR PRINCE BOB'S TEAM

North End has been defeated again. The league leaders since the opening and still ahead, Prince Bob's Crusaders were badly beaten when Captain Rodesney and his Jobbers took the game on June 10 by a score of 13 to 5.

Red Alford had the best of Sterling holding the league leaders to 5 scattered hits. They could not solve his delivery. The Jobbers hit well but made seven errors while the leaders made 5 errors contributing to their loss.

The Lions occupying the cellar in the league have also defeated the North End team.

The Schuhmacher team got some material from other teams for the game which gave them a much stronger aggregation. Baggett and Terry Wiley each got two hits for the leaders. The box score will show the average of the Jobbers in this game.

DEATH SENTENCE AFFIRMED BY COURT

MAN WHO KILLED TWO FAMILIES MUST GO TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

George J. Hassel, confessed slayer of 13 people and recently convicted in District court at Farwell, Texas, for the murder of his wife and eight children, must die in the electric chair for his crimes.

The death sentence imposed for these murders was affirmed Tuesday by the court of criminal appeals of Austin.

Hassel on his way to the state prison passed through Cameron and gave a lengthy interview on his attitude toward the fate that awaits him. He declared he is not afraid to die and some surprise was occasioned here when he filed a last minute appeal of his case. While in the Milam county jail Hassel was boastful and had little compunction of conscience for what he had done.

He murdered two families and in both instances buried the bodies. His wife and three stepchildren killed in California were found when officers were furnished with a chart showing a way to the bodies. This chart was given by Hassel as he sat in the death cell at Huntsville. In 1925 at Farwell he killed his wife and eight children. They were the children of his brother, Hassel having married his brother's widow in Oklahoma in 1924.

JOHN HENRY KIRBY NOT FOR AMENDMENT

HOUSTON MEMBER OF HOUSE
WRITES OBJECTIONS TO ISSUES

"The proposed amendment to the constitution of Texas, authorizing the legislature to separate the sources of state and local revenue, fails to meet any of the proper requirements of a just, uniform and economic system of taxation," said Representative John H. Kirby in a statement issued Saturday.

"I say this assuming that either the California or the Virginia plan will be adopted. Future law-makers must decide that for us.

"Any form of segregation, however, will be without safeguards for just and equitable administration. That must be the case where public utilities and all corporation properties become a source of revenue for one of the governments, and individual holdings a source of revenue for the other. Instances can arise in which like properties in the same locality may be required to pay a different rate of taxation.

Uniform Tax Impossible.
"If some are to be less burdened by this proposed system, it must follow that others will be more burdened.

"The ace card of the proponents of the change is that at present different property valuations obtain in all the 252 counties of Texas, making a uniform tax an impossibility. But does the new system offer any relief for this? If local boards of equalization are unable to arrive at uniform valuations, how can a state board, unfamiliar and far removed from the property, do it?

"Should it be desirable to have a state board for the purpose of securing a more uniform system of making renditions, perhaps the authority for the creation of such a board already exists. The constitution asserts that the legislature may 'provide for the classification of all the lands with reference to their value in the several counties.' Doubtless such a board could be given authority to provide for the classification of other property also.

System Change Otherwise.
"It would be unwise to change the whole taxing system with the chief aim being to secure something which we already have.

"Should the proposed amendment carry, all ad valorem taxes will go to the local government. The state will secure its revenue from different sources. This seems to mean that those who pay only ad valorem taxes will be released from any obligations to the state government. The bait is doubtless offered as an inducement to farmers and other land owners.

"I do not believe any plan can be devised to bear the cost of government. But if it were true that this system would answer that purpose, could a sound thinking, patriotic citizen defend it? Can you imagine anything more vicious than a law enacted primarily to release a section of the state or a part of the people from the necessity of meeting the legitimate expenses of the government according to their means?

Wide Distribution.

"Taxation could rest where it will impose burdens the easiest to meet. The most virtuous theory is to touch as many shoulders as possible without resting heavily upon any of them. One of the best guarantees of liberty that we now have is that it costs money to maintain departments of government to meddle with individual rights. Separating the sources of revenue endangers that. When certain elements in this state can be assured that it will not cost them anything to increase the activities of the government at Austin, because they are taxed only for local purposes, the bridle will be removed from the legislature.

Real Estate Attacked.

"Politicians are telling us that real estate is being unduly burdened by taxation. But will a system which is sure to cost both state and local government release real estate from its bondage? Millions of dollars of indebtedness already rests upon our hands and it will never be released until those lands yield the revenue to pay off this indebtedness. The various bond issues which have been voted from one end of Texas to the other are secured by visible property rather than intangible assets.

"Our present tax system is not perfect. Nothing of human origin is perfect or ever will be. But it is safely anchored to the constitution of the state; there has been marvelous progress under it and we had better not swap it for something of doubtful character. Uncertainty, confusion, discouragement to industry, will follow the adoption of the amendment.

"While real estate will not be given relief, there will be the shadow of an extravagant state government resting upon the back of industry and many contemplated enterprises will be held up until the results might be ascertained.

"In some portions of the state, where school districts secure most of their revenue from taxing mills and plants and factories, school terms will be cut down and school facilities crippled. There will also be communities in which the public service corporations and industrial concerns will be beneficiaries of money spent that is derived from taxation, not a dollar of which they will be called on to contribute.

"There is a way to lessen tax burdens. It is the old way proclaimed by the democratic party from its very foundation down to recent years. It is gained through economy in public expenditures and by limiting the activities of government to the purpose set out in our constitution."—Post-Dispatch, Houston.

Shipment of Green Corn Begins at Thorndale Farms

Crockett and Crockett, experienced buyers and shippers of green corn, cabbage and spinach arrived with their crew of about thirty Mexican laborers with trucks and other equipment on Monday morning of this week and began cutting and shipping roasting ears to northern and eastern markets on Wednesday morning, the 1st field they entered being that of Gus Achtruth, living about one mile west of town, after which they will cut a patch for Henry McJee, and from these go from patch to patch until they have cut and shipped all corn the farmers have for sale. They hope to be able to cut and ship about two hundred cars from Thorndale. A car of corn averages about 500 baskets of corn and Crockett and Crockett will pay the farmers 30c per basket for the corn in the field as it stands, cutting and packing it themselves without cost to the farmers.

Some farmers have objected to selling their corn to them fearing that the truck will knock down and damage the small per cent of corn not suitable for shipping, but Mr. Crockett says they will only run over one row of corn to approximately every

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

TWENTY-FOUR ADDITIONS TO THE CHURCH.

On last Sunday night our revival meeting of two weeks closed. The meeting was a success in many ways. We have had meetings in which we had larger crowds and more additions to the church, but this meeting was characterized by its plain, simple gospel preaching. Dr. Melton, from time to time, brought instructive, soul-stirring Bible messages. The people who attended regularly and listened, know more of the scriptures now than they did before and no doubt are having a closer walk with God than ever before.

The following is a statement of finances of the meeting and the division of the money that was collected: Hotel bill, $34.50; board, $24.76; publicity, $14.75. Total $78.01 of incidental expenses. The incidental offerings of the meeting amounted to $55.96. The envelope offerings which came in designated to go to Bro. Melton and Cook, amounted to $272.02. But it was decided in the meeting of the finance committee to send Bro. Melton a check for $200.00 for the two weeks' service, and Bro. Cook a check for $75.00 for one week's service and let the incidental expense of the church stand the loss of $26.03.

These men were entitled to more pay than that, but that was the money that came in and we had to do the best we could with the money in hand.

We are happy to welcome into our church family the following:

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Because of a misunderstanding of dates, arrangements were made to have the mid-week prayer service on Monday night rather than Wednesday night of this week. It was thought at the time that Chautauqua would be in progress Wednesday night, but it was learned later that Chautauqua does not start until a later date. Arrangements had been made to where changing would be impractical. But because of the bad weather the baptismal service was postponed until a later date.

The choir will not meet for practice this week.

On Friday afternoon just after the Chautauqua is dismissed, we will have our enrollment for the Vacation Bible School. The faculty will come immediately to the church and meet the children here to enroll them so that on next Monday when the school opens there will be no loss of time and also avoid congestion by having the enrollment of the larger number already completed and be ready to go immediately into the work. If some cannot come on Friday, then they may come on Monday and be enrolled on that day, but all who can are urged to come Friday and enroll at which time there is to be some refreshments of some kind and a car ride offered the children. If possible, come Friday. Then starting Monday morning at 8:00 o'clock, we will be into the Vacation Bible School work proper. We will meet each morning at 8:00 and continue until 10:00. There will be a variety of work and play and singing, so the three hours will not be a long period.

There will not be any service at the church next Sunday night. It was decided some time ago in the pastors' meeting that on Sunday night of the Chautauqua, all churches would dismiss their services and have a union meeting at the Chautauqua grounds.

There will not be any meeting of the ladies of the church next Monday, which is the 20th, due to the fact that many of the ladies will wish to attend the Chautauqua.

OUR SICK

We are glad to report that Mr. Black is steadily improving and is back at his many duties now. Miss Hattie Lake is improving and Mrs. I. N. Pool is also improving. Mrs. J. M. Buck is still in the hospital, slowly improving. We are glad to report that Mrs. J. R. Hays is improving and is back at home after a prolonged absence. She has been in Corsicana Hospital where she underwent an operation. We are glad to have her back with us again.

HONOR ROLL

Let us bear in mind that at the close of this month we will again publish the honor roll of our church. It is gratifying to know that many of our people are coming to take the scriptural way of contributing to the church, and week by week they bring their offerings to the church and worship the Lord with their money. We are happy to publish the names of these four times each year, and the first of next month will be the time to publish the names again. We are hoping that the list will be long and that all who were on it the other times will be on it this time. Also, we are earnestly hoping that some who were not on before will be on it this time. The following ought to appear on the honor roll of their church, not only in finances, but everything else: all the deacons, there are eleven of them; all the finance committee, there are twelve of them; all the Sunday School teachers and officers, there are over fifty of them; all of the officers of the B. Y. P. U.'s and of the Ladies Auxiliaries. Surely everyone who has been honored with an official place in the church ought to see to it that their name gets on the honor roll of their church.

WHAT I HAVE GIVEN AWAY.

Time and again the report has reached me that I lost my money by reason of the fact that I gave it away, or that this was the primary cause for the loss of my wealth.

It gives me great pleasure to testify that the above conclusion is false and that the only money that I saved is that which was given for God's cause and the uplift of mankind.

There is no greater satisfaction or pleasure than that derived from seeing the greatest dividends produced by wise investments in men and women, boys and girls, who have a deep and sincere desire to make the world a better place in which to live, as well as advance it in a material way.

Too much endorsements on paper of friends that I have desired to help, with the closing of the Commercial National Bank, of which I was a director and large stockholder, brought about by outside pressure, in 1910 when money matters were tight, were the prime causes of my losses. My holdings of oil stock, sawmill stock and other interests at that time would today be worth one and one-quarter million dollars. However, the above stated causes and the influence of politicians, horse racers and gamblers all combined against me in such a way that I could not overcome them. While the above statement is absolutely true, I do not hold malice or ill will in my heart against any individual; but on the contrary, I wish every man the best things in life.

The contributions of myself and others to Baylor University and Baylor College for the cause of temperance and Christianity pay the greatest dividends of any investment possible, because that which uplifts mankind is of unmeasurable good.

My only regret is that I am not able to continue making large gifts to these institutions, and I hope that these few words may be the incentive for some others to do the things that I would if permitted; they will then experience as never before the joys that have been mine.

George W. Carroll, Sr., Beaumont.

WHEN ATHEISM WILL NOT DO.

"Men feel a need for the divine—a heart hunger for His presence. His spirit, His guidance—such as no past generation has experienced. It takes pain and misfortune to bring us to ourselves and to the realization of our dependence upon the Eternal, as it takes the night to bring out the stars. After the Battle of Bull Run, when bitter defeat swept the North with consternation, President Lincoln proclaimed a day of prayer to God. Among others, a little society of atheists went to a nearby chapel and engaged in a solemn service of supplication. So impressed was Mr. Lincoln by the unusual occurrence that he made inquiry as to the motive that prompted it. 'Atheism is all right in times of peace,' was the reply, 'but now that Bull Run has happened something has to be done.' That is

The enacting of the Federal Farm Loan Act came as a necessity, born of a demand of agriculture for a system of farm finance that would permit a farm to be paid out from the proceeds of the farm; such payments to be distributed over a long period of time. The very nature of the act bases the securities offered upon soil fertility. While location and transportation facilities play a prominent part in the securities offered for farm loans, yet the basic factor in such securities must, of necessity, be the earning capacity of the land. The fact that Federal Farm Loans are made to mature over a long period of years makes it necessary that the farm be so managed that the collateral will not deteriorate. That is, the soil must so be managed that the security is permanently sound. The creditor furnishing money for farm loans furnished such money upon the basis of confidence in the ability of the land to be and to remain, adequate security.

The investment funds of the nation have come to the aid of agriculture and are financing the low interest rate authorized Federal Farm Loan through the sale of long time bonds. Where such money is obtained by the sale of bonds based upon soil collateral, then soil conservation becomes a fixed obligation upon the borrower, and he must fulfill his obligation and insure the permanency of the security by terracing all rolling lands, upon which loans have been made.

Any farm financing system having for its aim the relief, or promotion, of agriculture must be based upon long time credit, and the security for such long time credit is farm land. The best security, and the security upon which the greatest amount of credit can be issued, is farm lands that are protected from erosion by terraces; and have been built or maintained in a high state of fertility by crop rotation. Such type of security is the most desirable for long time loans because the collateral borrower's ability to meet his financial cure is the most desirable for long time loans, because the collateral grows more secure each year and the borrower's ability to meet his financial obligations increases from year to year.

The question that naturally arises is: What type of soil or field offers income, permanent soil fertility and the best insurance for permanent farm surety of meeting financial obligations? Farm management does not differ from other business, in that the greatest factor involved is the individual. A man whose ambition is to remain on his farm and accept it as his permanent place of abode will usually study his farm problems and use to his benefit, and to the benefit of his community, all the agricultural information that he can accumulate. This type of man is one who terraces his rolling land to prevent the loss of plant food and to prevent the best soil from washing away. This type of man practices crop rotation and cares for livestock. This system of farming brings to the farm home the comforts and conveniences that are the divine right of every farm family. This system of farming brings with it the cooperation of a community, that the Lord intended. This system of farming brings a permanency of agriculture that insures a bountiful harvest for the yet unborn generations. This system of farming in a community, will bring with it the desirable location and the desirable transportation facilities which tend to make farm life more desirable and more remunerative.

MAN IN OTTO LANGE CASE GETS 5 YEARS

KINCH SHELBORNE CONVICTED FOR MURDER BY CALDWELL JURY

Caldwell, Texas, June 11.—The checker game on the veranda of the rambling Caldwell hotel has resumed its interrupted sway.

The strident ring of the village smithy's anvil again resounds monotonously over the business section.

Merchants and shopmen are back on the job, and the ancient brick courthouse of Burleson county is deserted of the throngs that have animated it for the past ten days.

The only perceptible difference in the quiet little town between the normalcy that existed before the Otto Lange murder case went to trial, and that which was restored Saturday, is that Kinch Shelborne, 31, railroad roundhouse worker of Somerville, languishes in the county jail, awaiting release under bond when his notice of appeal is given.

Klan Chapter Closed.

And thus ends another stirring chapter in the history of the rise and fall of the Ku Klux Klan in Texas, a chapter added long after the book had been closed and laid aside.

It was a chapter of the long stern arm of constituted law reaching out across the chasm of four years, and seizing one more alleged leader of rule by masked mob violence.

It is decreed that Kinch Shelborne must pay the penalty of five years in state prison for the murder of Otto Lange, a German of Somerville, on July 2, 1923.

Deliberate 38 Hours.

The verdict was reached by the jury at 8:20 a. m. Saturday, after exactly 38 hours of deadlocked deliberation, which attorneys on both sides had begun to fear could not be broken. The case went to the twelve good men and true at 6:30 p. m. Thursday.

The defendant appeared dumbfounded by the pronouncement of his fate. For the first time during the 10 days of the trial his stolid equanimity failed him. For a moment after the dread words were uttered by the jury foreman, he stared, blanched and trembling.

Klan Feeling Blamed.

"It's because I was a klansman," he cried later. "I was convicted when the first one of those 12 anti-klan jurors took the box."

His wife, his mother and other women relatives became hysterical and had to be taken from the court room.

"My boy is being made to suffer for the crime of another man," wailed his mother.

Judge J. B. Pyles was called from breakfast at the hotel by Sheriff Clint Lewis, when the jury announced it had reached a verdict. He had sent the jury back to its room Friday afternoon when it declared an agreement could not be reached.

Jury Poll Asked.

When the foreman had intoned the verdict, Hays Bowers, attorney for the defendant, rose and demanded a poll of each juror. "The defendant has the right of each juror separately how he voted, to see whether this verdict represents the decision of each juror," he urged.

The request was granted, the 12 men were sent back to their room, and Peter Supak, a Catholic, was the first called forth individually.

Any Wrong Doing.

"Is this your verdict in the case?" Bowers asked him. Supak replied in the affirmative, and the attorney continued, "Mr. Supak, the defendant has a right to know how this verdict was reached. I want to ask you now: Was there any wrong doing in arriving at it, was there any outside influence brought to bear on you or any other juror that you know of?"

Merton Harris, district attorney who prosecuted the case, objected to this question.

"The law gives the right to poll the jurors on only the one question, as to how he voted," he protested.

How Doctors Treat Colds and the Flu

To break up a cold overnight or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined, without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bed-time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold is vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please, no danger.

Get a family package, containing all directions, only 35 cents. At any drug store. (adv)

The objection was sustained, and thereupon the remaining jurors were asked that question. Each one said that the five year verdict was his decision in the matter.

There was a current report, based upon an unknown authority, that long deadlock was caused by nine men wanting to assess a 25 year prison term, and three holding out for acquittal, until the five compromise was made. That is the lowest sentence that can be imposed for murder.

Led Away To Jail.

At 9:30 a. m. the sheriff led Shelborne away and locked him up in a cell in the county jail, where he must stay until appeal is perfected. Then he may be released on bond until a decision by the higher court is handed down. If the appeal fails, he then must go to the penitentiary.

Attorney Bowers said he would file a motion for new trial, a formality that must precede appeal. Then he will give notice of appeal Tuesday, and bond will be made for the convicted man.

Bowers was rather indignant over the verdict. "If Kinch Shelborne was guilty, he deserved the electric chair," he declared. "If he was innocent, he should have been acquitted. There should be no half way measure for such a crime as shooting a man in the back, because he resisted efforts to take him away from his home and family for a flogging."

The young district attorney, on the other hand, was jubilant over the outcome of the case.

Victory for Decency.

"It was a great victory for decent law abiding citizenship of Burleson county," he said. "The verdict was too light but it will serve to discourage lawlessness and check mob violence in this county."

So ended, except for the appeal, the belated last of a series of prosecutions of alleged masked mob crimes in Texas probably the most sensational murder case involving the name of the Ku Klux Klan in this state since those in the neighboring county of Williamson, which started young Dan Moody on the high road to the governorship.

Monroe Fisher Billed For Killing Bonds

Temple, Texas, June 11.—Monroe Fisher of Temple, charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Albert Bonds, former sheriff of Bell county, and slayer of Fisher's father, Wiley Fisher, chief of police here, was named in an indictment presented Friday to the district court by the grand jury for the June term of court which took a recess after reporting to Judge Lewis H. Jones, embodying 40 indictments, including that against Fisher.

A "no bill" was returned by the jury in the case of Fred Williams of Sparta, who was charged with the murder of Urban Wiseman of Sparta last Sunday. The former was released from the Bell county jail Thursday. No indictment has been returned against Roy Willoughby of Temple who was charged with assault to murder in connection with the shooting of Monroe Fisher in Temple several weeks ago. The shooting had no connection with the Fisher-Bonds family difficulties.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Boles went to Thorndale Sunday.

Help Kidneys By Drinking More Water

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent, lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 93

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic" Your Child

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

BUSINESS GETS DOWN TO BUSINESS

There is a strong renewal of confidence that business should continue at high prosperity levels for an indefinite period. With this has come an impression—which is well nigh a fear—that this confidence may breed too much of an assurance of security, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Feeling this, bankers and industrial leaders have been quick to deplore any tendency toward losing the traditional American energy and simplicity of living, in a sense of ease and luxury. They realize the very fact that the volume of money now in circulation is unprecedentedly large and tends to put commerce on a basis of keener competition than probably was ever known in America.

With men and women employed at the highest wages on record—measured by buying power as well as by dollars—American business has at its own door the world's most profitable market. So great is the change compared with pre-war days that it almost seems an entirely new market has been created.

Articles once classed as luxuries have become necessities in the average home.

Business is again emphasizing that he who is alert, resourceful and preserving will live; that he who is a laggard will go down and disappear. So the homely oldtime rules of business conduct once more are coming into respect.

Strict attention to business is being advocated, with probably more force than at any time since the Armistice. The executive as well as the clerk is feeling this pressure. The tendencies toward timewasting, business frills, and the sadly overdone "conference" habit are being checked. Business is getting down to business.

ANTI-SYNDICALISM UPHOLD

By a sweeping decision the United States Supreme Court has upheld the Anti-Syndicalism laws of California and Kansas. The decision wipes out the claims of all Radicals and all political subversionists that they have the right to operate to the destruction of our constitutional forms. The court holds that the rights of free press, free speech and free assembly do not extend to annihilationistic processes of use of force in making fundamental changes in our form of government or industry.

Constitutional rights cannot be resorted to for processes of treason or sedition or of crime to promote destructive ends. The California law denies criminal syndicalism as "any doctrine or precept advocating, teaching or aiding and abetting the commission of crime, sabotage or unlawful acts of force and violence or unlawful methods of terrorism as a means of accomplishing changes in industrial ownership and control or affecting any political change." Any person or organization, or one belonging to any organization found to teach, advocate, aid or abet criminal syndicalism commits felony.

The reds, if they could gain the power, would deprive all but themselves of the rights now commonly enjoyed by Americans, and destroy political freedom of all who disagree with them.

The Supreme Court has upheld the fundamental principles of American government and free speech under majority rule as an essential means of its exercise. But this does not mean incendiary minds can start fires with impunity, whether by the torch or by less direct but even more dangerous means. The law against criminal syndicalism was intended to restrict both those who openly advocate and practice the doctrines of destruction and those who lend their influence to such movements. Its effect has served the intent, and the Supreme Court has set its seal of approval upon the letter of the law, its administration and its purpose. A vast majority of citizens will be well pleased to receive assurance that a law morally and socially correct is also technically right and will continue to stand as a bulwark of righteous government by a peaceable people.

California can feel well satisfied with its criminal syndicalism law. It has been adjudged valid by the highest court of the land, and its administration fulfills the intent of the lawmakers who framed it. Other states might do well to copy it.

THE ACCIDENT PREVENTION PROBLEM.

Compelling every automobile owner to carry liability insurance will not in itself prevent accidents. Indeed, there are those who contend that a reckless driver, insured, becomes more reckless than before.

Instead of trying constantly to make it easier for the reckless driver to operate his car to the detriment of the public, why not make it more difficult by imposing obligations based on the character and ability to drive.

During 1926, there were 7,000 accidental injuries and 246 deaths every day in the United States. Motor cars were the largest single contributor to the death, hospital, and the $4,000,000,000 money loss.

Some accidents seem unavoidable but by far the greater majority are easily avoidable: by car inspection, by reasonable driving, by fair consideration of others, by pedestrian decency and care. The speedster and the jaywalker are twin perils; the foot hog and the car hog are other twins, alike, deadly; the get-out-of-my-way driver and the don't-you-dare-touch-me pedestrian run neck and neck in the fatality list, for themselves and for others.

Safety is largely an individual matter; it must be taught to every person, every succeeding generation—there is no hereditary or radical caution to save anybody.

The best contribution any man can make to public safety is to be careful himself, and demand caution in his own family whether it walks or rides. This loss of $4,000,000,000 a year in accidents, most of them avoidable, is everybody's business; and until everybody does his part, the slaughter and the loss will continue.

GAS ECONOMICS INCREASE CONSUMPTION.

The gas industry has shown a gain in sales of 130 per cent during the past decade, with the year 1926 the best in its history. The big increase in consumption has been in the industrial field, although household use has shown a steady growth.

Increased heating efficiency plus the elimination of smoke, ashes and labor are fundamental reasons for the astonishing increase in gas use in home and factory.

Follow Him Around

Chester M. Sanford who speaks on the Chautauqua program this year is the busiest man in town and the most in demand.

Mr. Sanford's lecture deals with personality and opportunity and success. Vocational guidance is coming into its own in this country. People young and old are giving some attention to their fitness for their life work. Success or failure may depend upon the wisdom by which their selection is guided and certainly happiness is concerned as well.

Several seasons ago when Mr. Sanford was touring the Premier circuit of the Redpath-Horner, he spoke in McPherson, Kansas. His lecture proved of such vital interest to young and old, that the business men of McPherson immediately arranged to have Mr. Sanford appear there in the fall for three successive days. Following his appearance at St. Edward, Neb., the same summer, a nearby town, Albion, Neb., wrote in and booked Mr. Sanford for a full week of lectures. Thus he would have an opportunity of addressing and consulting many more young people than was possible in one day in Chautauqua.

When a lecture of this type appeals to business men in such a town as McPherson, it has vital qualities that are unusual and this is true, for Dr. Sanford has something that is of interest to every person in every city which he will visit. To miss hearing him is to miss an opportunity which may be fraught with the utmost possibilities of success and future happiness in work.

Quart of Water Cleans Kidneys

Take a Little Salts if Your Back Hurts, or Bladder is Troubling You

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Salts Fine for Aching Kidneys

Eating too much meat may clog the Kidneys, then the Back hurts.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness, and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also helps neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus helping to relieve bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in trying a correct kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Corns

Lift Off—No Pain!

Doesn't hurt one bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers.

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the foot calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Overdoing?

Hurry, Worry and Overwork Bring Heavy Strain.

MODERN life "throws a heavy burden on our bodily machinery. The eliminative organs, especially the kidneys, are apt to become sluggish. Retention of excess uric acid and other poisonous waste often gives rise to a dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches and headaches. That the kidneys are not functioning perfectly is often shown by burning or scanty passage of secretions. More and more people are learning to assist their kidneys by the occasional use of Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. Ask your neighbor!

ASSEMBLE CHEVROLET
TRUCK IN 6 MINUTES

STANDARD PARTS VALUE DEMONSTRATED BY CHEVROLET TEAM

Eight members of the Washington section, Society of Automotive Engineers, demonstrated the advantages of standard automotive parts recently by assembling a half-ton Chevrolet chassis in the record time of six and one-half minutes, in competition with six other teams similarly engaged. "The stunt was a feature of the Society's annual summer meeting at French Lick, Ind.," said Mike Coleman of the Coleman Chevrolet Company of Cameron.

"While the assembled delegates derived much amusement from watching the seven teams vie for a record in a line of work with which they were unfamiliar, except in theory, the performance also carried its lesson to many of the watchers. But for the perfectly-fitting parts, the assembly might have required hours instead of minutes. The elapsed time was strikingly short, in view of the fact that none of the assemblers were connected with Chevrolet nor familiar with its mechanical details. Three of the winning teams were engineers of the United States Bureau of Standards. "The slowest team required only a few minutes longer than the fastest, and its hurry added amusement to the contest. As a test of each team's work, each car had to be run five times around a loop in the nearby driveway before the results were certified."

"The seven trucks were shipped to French Lick from the Chevrolet factory at Flint, Mich. Such parts as the distributor assembly, the wiring system, gasoline tank, carburetor, a front and rear wheel, and various other units, together with a miscellany of bolts, nuts and screws, were removed and tossed into boxes in the pits adjacent to the assembly space. Equipped with two sets of tools such as are furnished with each Chevrolet truck, each team had then to select the parts and put them in their proper place. "The quick assembly job performed at French Lick offers a hint as to the reason for the Chevrolet truck's popularity," said Mr. Coleman. "Trucks are business vehicles, and the owner loses whenever they are laid up for repairs. The seven teams at the S. A. E. meeting demonstrated that the owner himself can make the needed replacements, in most cases, with no equipment except that furnished with his truck, and thus keep his Chevrolet making money for him with a minimum of interruption and expense."

How Long Will
Fish Live In Texas
Waters Is Told

How long a fish will live in Texas streams depends mainly on the skill of fishermen. Few fish die of old age; they are mostly caught young. The tragedy is abated only when "they are not biting." The undersize bass is a victim of hasty strikes at a supposed bug or fly, and all fish, one way or another, meet an untimely end from the standpoint of the fish.

But it's great sport to take them, and when an angler's reputation is at stake, there is a temptation to carry home 50 or 100 even if they are short, and before they have reached the age of reproduction.

Prior to a year ago the state had only one hatchery, located at Dallas, which sent out annually from 100,000 to 250,000 young fish since the time of its construction in 1915, but practically all were sent to lakes and private ponds. Last year, with two hatcheries added, a few fish were sent to streams and creeks. This year the applications for fish include a greater number of streams.

That so few applications are made for fish to be placed in streams is due to the belief that they would soon be caught out by an irresponsible public. That is perhaps the greatest difficulty to a successful stocking of the fishing streams which were once the angler's delight.

The Commission, with four hatcheries now in operation, hopes to send out from one half million fish annually. They must, of course, be allowed to reach maturity and reproduce, which will require at least a year. Observation of the fishing laws is imperative and 100 per cent cooperation by the public is essential to the success of this important enterprise of the state.

Eleven inches for bass and seven inches for white perch and crappie are the lawful lengths.

Distribution of bass from the Tyler hatchery began this week, with Commissioner Will J. Tucker on the ground in close touch with the work.

Lexington Boy May
Try Trans-Pacific
Flight For Award

Dallas, Texas, June 3.—A Dallas society woman Friday offered to pay expenses of, Conner Porter of Lexington, Texas, on a trans-Pacific flight if he agrees to take her on the flight.

Porter recently sought financial aid from the Dallas Chamber of Commerce to enter the Dallas to Hong Kong flight, for which William Eastwood, Dallas capitalist, has posted an award of $25,000.

The Dallas woman, who stipulated that her name be withheld for the present, said that if Porter would furnish the airplane and allow her to accompany him she would pay all other expenses.

Robert J. Smith, aviation secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, through whom the offer was made, estimates the expenses which she would pay at about $10,000. Mr. Smith said he would forward her offer to Porter.

TEXAS POWER & LIGHT AWARDED SERVICE PRIZE

HOME AND INDUSTRY BENEFIT BY COMPANY ACTIVITIES

The Texas Power and Light Company, through its president, John W. Carpenter, was awarded a prize for his company's activities in rendering the second greatest public utilities service to home and industry for 1926, at the annual convention of the National Electric Light Association, which just closed in Atlantic City.

This award is one of the outstanding recognitions of progress in the electrical industry, and the Texas Power and Light Company, only 15 years old in June and one of the younger utility companies, won out over many older established power and light companies of the north and east.

Mr. Carpenter, in accepting the award for his company, said:

"In accepting this award, I feel that it is given to my company in recognition of our efforts to render good service to our customers and in helping the cities and towns which we serve to grow and develop. Industry cannot grow and develop without the proper home environment, and I believe that electricity is one of the greatest aids in making the home a more enjoyable place to live."

"The natural resources of Texas are unlimited, and the Texas Power and Light Company is making a sincere effort to help the communities it serves to develop these resources in order to increase the community wealth. The company operates more than 2,000 miles of transmission lines and serves thousands of homes and industries from a number of strategically located central generating plants more economically than they could be served if we were to operate small individual plants in each of the cities and towns which we serve."

Mr. Carpenter told the delegates from all parts of the United States attending this convention that Texas was making great strides toward industrial development, and that the value of the State's manufactured products today equals the annual crop wealth, a figure all the more impressive when it is remembered that Texas leads all the states in value of agricultural products.

Public System of Refrigeration Is Sought In Dallas

Dallas, Tex., June 10.—Plans for Dallas to have a public system of refrigeration to service business houses, theaters, and private residences to overcome the heat of the summer or for any purpose for which low temperatures are desired were under way today.

An ordinance granting a 20 year exclusive contract for a factory and pipe lines for refrigeration purposes in the city to an individual was given first reading by the city commissioners Friday. Two were readings and at least a month's time must pass before such a franchise could be effective.

The tentative plans are for the construction within a year of a system costing between $750,000 and $1,000,000, Mayor R. E. Burt said. The city would receive four per cent of the gross returns of the refrigerating concern in addition to taxes. The city would have control over rates charged by the company, and an option to buy the system at the end of 18 years.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL
AT THE AGE OF 63

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

MOODY SENDS STATE RANGERS TO MARSHALL

FEDERAL JUDGE ALSO ORDERS PROBE OF BRUTAL FLOGGING

Austin, Texas, June 13.—Ranger Joe Osaba today was ordered to Marshall to join Private C. M. Ezelle in assisting in investigation of recent floggings there. Osaba was sent out by Adjutant General R. L. Robertson, at Governor Moody's direction when the county attorney at Marshall wire acceptance of Governor Moody's offer of aid.

The governor in a telegram to the sheriff at Marshall, tendered services of two rangers in clearing up the recent flogging of four members of two families near Marshall.

One ranger already stationed in Marshall, was placed at the disposal of local authorities and Osaba was ordered to join him.

Federal Judge W. L. Estes of the Eastern District of Texas, Texarkana, today ordered an "immediate and sweeping investigation of the peonage angles" of the flogging of four members of two families near here last Wednesday night.

D. Osborne, tenant farmer, who was arrested Sunday and charged with two counts of aggravated assault and one of carrying a pistol, today was additionally charged in two other counts, one of the first, if not the first ever preferred under the Texas anti-mask law.

One complaint charged him with "committing an assault while masked and under disguise; the other on the grounds that he appeared before a private home masked and in disguise."

Both offenses are felonies. The first carries a minimum sentence of five years as a penalty, while punishment for the latter is from one to five years in prison. Bonds of $1,000 were set in each case. They were signed by Cain Anderson for whom Osborne worked.

Whether a special session of the grand jury will be called to investigate the case has not been determined Monday by P. O. Beard, district judge, for Harrison county.

An appeal for medical aid was made by the Richardson family. Mr. Richardson fears blood poisoning is developing as a result of the lashing.

Marshall, Texas, June 13.—While federal, state and local law enforcement machinery was moving against the persons who flogged five persons last week, excitement was brought to a high pitch here tonight by the disappearance of two of the victims, W. A. Strapps and his wife. J. R. Richardson and his wife, the latter the mother of Strapps, were in serious condition from their injuries. Mrs. Hester Lee Mills, a sister of Strapps and fifth member of the family outraged, has returned to Dallas where she is employed.

Gas Company Buys Franchise In Texas Cities In West

Ft. Worth, Tex., June 10.—The Lone Star Gas Company has acquired by purchase all the West Texas Gas properties of the Texas Company which include gas systems in Abilene, Clyde, Baird, Putnam, Cisco, Eastland, Moran, Sedwick, Albany and Crystal Falls according to a report in oil circles here which was practically confirmed at the Ft. Worth offices of the Texas company today.

The purchase price, while not announced, is understood on good authority to run well over seven figures.

The sale, which gives the Lone Star Gas company gas wells, pipe lines, compressor stations, and local distributor systems in ten west Texas towns transpired because the Lone Star desired to expand its services in central west Texas while the Texas company was willing to turn loose a department which was strictly a side line.

The same report said that the Lone Star would soon increase the size of its gas lines and would extend the system to Sweetwater and probably to Colorado and beyond, tapping intervening towns.

The business reported sold was the Pioneer Natural Gas business of Central West Texas and was started in 1909 to provide an outlet for natural gas of the Moran field which was developed by the first wells in that field.

Even more in the public mind than Mexico, or China, because seeming to touch us closer as individuals, is the question of enforcement of repeal of the Volstead Act—prohibition.

Some of us foolishly thought that when the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted this old problem was settled. But it has bobbed up again more troublesome than ever, and the press and air are filled with wild assertions from both factions, so that the mass of the people now do not know what to believe.

What, then, more timely and worth hearing than a discussion of this great question from an unbiased viewpoint by a nationally recognized authority a man who spent months in investigating the question for the Curtis publications, Mr. A. B. Macdonald.

Clarify your minds and get real information in this question by hearing Mr. Macdonald.

He will deliver two timely lectures on this subject in his one days' visit to this city during the Chautauqua program. He will speak on "Is Prohibition a Failure," and "Choose your Poison."

Mr. Macdonald brings no brief for either faction, but a startling array of facts, gained in months of personal investigation all over this country and Canada. He comes rather as the reporter who has been hired to get the truth, no matter who it hits, not as a propagandist.

Health Notes

Prevention of Malaria.

This is the time of the year that the rate of malaria begins to rise, unless mosquito control measures are used, according to Dr. J. C. Anderson, state health officer, who is conducting a campaign to secure cooperation of individuals and communities in the control of this disease, and who urges mosquito control programs in all towns in the malaria sections.

"By mosquito control," Dr. Anderson stated, "is meant the elimination of mosquito breeding places. Medical science has made possible the prevention of malaria, as well as numerous other diseases, and the fact that mosquitoes, the carriers of this disease, are allowed to breed unmolested to become a menace to a community, is indeed regrettable. Malaria is not only a health problem, but is also the cause of serious economic loss to any town or district.

Methods of Mosquito-Control.

"Methods recommended to householders for the prevention of mosquito breeding on premises are as follows:

"As mosquitoes breed only where there is water, it is well to fill in low places, and to drain ditches and ponds where practical.

"Where rain water is kept in barrels or other containers, cover once a week with a half pint of kerosene. Where refrigerator drains under house keep oiled also.

"Clean out clogged gutters, and do not allow water to stand in horse troughs, tin cans, or other containers.

"Tanks, ponds and underground cisterns should be stocked with minnows, which can be obtained from the oyster, fish and game commission, Austin.

"Screen house with 16 mesh wire, as mosquitoes can gain entrance through larger mesh. Keep screens in good repair."

Public Health Laws.

Two bills affecting public health far reaching in their scope, were passed by the special session of the Legislature just closed. One of these bills provides for the reorganization of the state department of health, with the appointment by the Governor of a State Board of Health, composed of six members, and the appointment of the health officer of this board. This bill carries the emergency clause, and was signed by the Governor on the 9th of June.

Another bill affecting public health is the new vital statistics law, which has also been signed by the Governor. This bill is modeled after laws now in effect in states within the registration area of the United States one of the features being the appointment by the health officer of the state of a registrar in every precinct in the state, these registrars making reports direct to the state health department. It is hoped that the enactment of this law will increase reports to the extent that Texas will within the next year be admitted to the Federal registration area.

Health Official Returns.

Chester Cohen, sanitary engineer, who has been on a leave of absence during the past year to take a post-graduate course at Harvard University, specializing in water and sewage purification, has returned, to Texas, and has again assumed his duties with the State department of health.

Communicable Disease.

Communicable diseases reported by county and city health officers to the state health department for the month of May are as follows: chicken pox, 91; dengue, 3; diphtheria, 93; dysentery, 8; influenza, 195; leprosy, 5; malaria, 704; measles, 906; mumps, 88; pellagra, 23; pneumonia, 37; poliomyelitis, 4; scarlet fever, 43; smallpox, 321; trachoma, 20; tuberculosis, 109; typhoid fever, 34; paratyphoid, 1; whooping cough, 177.

Quart of Water Cleans Kidneys

Take a Little Salts if Your Back Hurts, or Bladder is Troubling You

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Northern Markets Get Milam County Potato Shipment

With two carloads of Milam county potatoes shipped Thursday, June 2, and the third was shipped last Wednesday, by the Noack Grocery Company, of this city, the potato crop for this section is "just about cleared out," in the words of Eddie Noack, buyer for that firm. The three cars of potatoes were bought by the Noack Grocery Company at $1.50 per bushel, and were shipped to the northern markets.

Noack bought the potatoes at $1.50 per bushel, which is considered an excellent price in comparison to the amount paid in past years. The shipments were made to an Austin company and from there will go to the northern markets. In the two cars shipped last Thursday, according to Noack, there were approximately 1000 bushels, which means something like $1500 in the pockets of the farmers of this section. Farmers from all parts of this trade territory brought in their potatoes Thursday in quantities ranging from one to forty sacks. "The smallest amount bought was one half sack," Noack said, "and the largest forty two sacks."

After loading the three cars during the past two weeks, Noack stated that this would probably wind up the potato shipping from Rockdale for this season. "The crop this year is about the same size as the average yearly yield for this section," Noack said, "but a much larger crop should be made each year for any real benefit. Twelve or fifteen cars could easily be shipped from Rockdale."—Rockdale Reporter.

73 Boys and Girls Have Entered the Agriculture Contest

Seventy-three Texas boys and girls so far have entered the contest now being conducted under the direction of the agricultural department of the Missouri Pacific Lines to send representatives from each county served by that railroad to College Station in August, where they will attend the annual Farmers Short Course with all expenses paid. At least twenty others are expected to take part in this contest which becomes to a close with the final judging of all papers on July 15.

These 73 Texas boys and girls are submitting stories of not more than 100 words on, "The Agricultural Possibilities of My County," a novel contest originated by the agricultural department of the Missouri Pacific Lines, as a means of having the younger boys and girls residing on farms become better acquainted with the agricultural resources of their respective communities. In last year's story writing contest on the same subject some rare literary talent was discovered, judges and committeemen in charge of the work praising the Texas youths highly for the splendid manner in which their articles on agriculture were prepared.

In each county employing a county agricultural agent and county home demonstration agent a boy and girl will be selected for the trip to College Station. Where there is but a county agent only a boy will be sent, the winners in each contest to be determined by a committee composed of the county judge, county home demonstration agent or county agent and the superintendent of schools, who will carefully grade all papers. After the winners of the contest have been decided each one will be provided with a ticket to College Station and return to his or her home. On the way to the Farmers Short Course, and return home, as well as during the entire one-week session, the expense of the contest winners will be defrayed by the Missouri Pacific Lines.

Counties from which contestants have already entered include Anderson, Bexar, Brazos, Cameron, Ellis, Frio, Galveston, Grimes, Harris, Hidalgo, Houston, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Johnson, Kleberg, Liberty, McLennan, Milam, Neches, Orange, San Patricio, Rusk, Smith, Tarrant, Travis, Victoria, Walker and Williamson, all of which will send a boy and a girl. Only a boy will be sent from Brazoria, Cherokee, Dimmitt, Falls, Freestone, Gregg, Hardin, Hill, Madison, Medina, Montgomery, Newton, Trinity, Robertson and Wood.

"I am highly pleased with the number of contestants entering the story writing contest this year and feel that it is an indication of increased interest among our younger folk in agricultural development and advancement," H. R. Safford, executive vice president of the Missouri Pacific Lines said. "These stories reflect a growing tendency on the part of our farmer boys and girls to unearth every possible resource, and have, I am sure proven a stimulating influence on the parents in their work to progress in this activity. We are only too glad to be able to offer this encouragement to the youthful farmers of Texas."

MASKED MEN BEAT WOMAN WITH ROPE

BREAK IN HOME AT MARSHALL AND FLOG FAMILY; TELL THEM TO LEAVE

Marshall, June 11.—News of the wholesale flogging of several white people by four masked men west of Marshall reached Marshall last night and is being investigated today by officers.

J. R. Richardson and his wife were flogged by four white men who came to their house about 9 o'clock Wednesday night it was reported. The men are said to have entered the home and at the point of pistols covered the two sons, Sammy 15, and Tommy, 14, and took their mother and beat her with a four-ply new seagrass rope with knots in it.

Then they turned and made her look on while they beat her husband with the same rope, then ordered the family to leave it is said.

They took Richardson's shotgun and cartridges with them. They next visited the home of W. A. Strapps, son of Mrs. Richardson, which is only about 150 yards away on another farm, and on entering the house, knocked Strapps down with a six-shooter and then proceeded to flog his wife with the same rope used at the Richardson home and knocked down Mrs. H. L. Mills, half sister of Strapps, with their fists, ordering the family to work their crop. They took Strapps shotgun with them when they left.

The men and women who were flogged came to town today and told their story to County Attorney John E. Taylor and other officers. They said three of the four men wore black rain slickers and the other one a yellow slicker. Their faces were partly concealed with handkerchiefs and rags, it was said.

Arrests are expected soon, according to officers.

Mrs. Burke Entertains.

Mrs. Earle Burke complimented her niece, Miss Rachael Maxey of Marlinton, with a beautiful bridge party on last Thursday afternoon. Two tables were provided for the players amid beautiful decorations of Shasta daisies.

A delightful series of games were enjoyed. High score was won by Miss Rachael Maxey, a dainty handpainted handkerchief. Miss Dorothy Blaylock received consolation, a bull-dog cushion.

Those enjoying this party were: the honoree, Miss Rachael Maxey, Helen Blaylock, Gladys Davis, Ethel Collins, Reba Young, Bethel Middleton, Dorothy Blaylock.

The hostess served pineapple nut ice and angel food cake squares.

Announcement Party

Misses Ema Jean and Lucille McClaren were joint hostesses to a delightful bridge party Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. McClaren naming as honoree, their sister, Miss Viola McClaren, who has recently closed her third term as teacher in the Taylor school.

A pink and lavender color scheme was attractively carried out. On the porch beautiful pink roses in bowls on pedestal stands greeted the guests, who were received by Miss Ema Jean and invited into the reception rooms where bowls and vases of pink roses, zinnias and spring flowers were placed at vantage points.

Attractive covers adorned the four

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

Touring the World

LIEUT. COL. E. ALEXANDER POWELL, noted war correspondent, travelog writer and globe trotter, is engaged in a tour of the world via America's most modern and popular means of travel—the automobile.

With this American car, and accompanied by his wife and daughter, Col. Powell spent the winter visiting the islands in the eastern Mediterranean. Material gathered there will be included in his book, "Mediterranean Moorings," which he is writing on route. He will proceed through Finland, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia and others of those newer countries. The party will drive to Constantinople and thence by ferry across the Bosphorus. The tour will then take them down through Turkey and Syria to Damascus or Jerusalem. Arabia, Persia and India will be visited as the tour proceeds. Col. Powell will drive entirely across China and sail from there for California, completing a trip entirely around the world and traveling by automobile while on land.

The Buick brougham used by the Powells on the trip is standard in every respect except for items of special equipment. It was chosen because of the world-wide Buick authorized service which is available wherever automobiles are used.

Col. Powell is one of the best equipped men in America to undertake this long tour. He holds the record of being the only man to drive from Paris to India, crossing the Sahara Desert. He is also the first man to drive a car from Mexico to Alaska, accomplishing this feat in 1913.

tables provided for the players and scorecards in floral design and markers were laid on each table. At the conclusion of an enjoyable series of games, high score was won by Mrs. Peter Schram, some beautiful handpainted candle sticks in pink and lavender. Consolation fell to Miss Delphy Scott, a deck of bridge cards. The honoree received a pink lingerie garment.

The hostesses served chicken salad on lettuce leaf with dressing, topped with stuffed olives, heart shaped sandwiches, crackers, fruit punch, strawberry and nut ice cream and cake on pretty handpainted bamboo trays. Dainty hearts tied with lavender satin ribbons tucked under the napkins revealed the following: Viola McClaren to Thomas Benton Roberts, June 26th. Congratulations and best wishes were offered to the charming bride, who was beautiful in a handpainted crepe of late model.

The following guests were present: Mrs. H. R. Heggie, Temple; Mrs. Pete Schram, Taylor; Miss Frances Nowlin, Austin; Misses Stella Whitlow and Pat Stokes of Bartlett. On account of the rain other guests were unable to be present.

The wedding will take place Sunday morning, June 26th at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The happy couple will leave immediately for a wedding trip, after which they will keep house in Taylor, where the groom to be is manager of the Heggie and Roberts Tire Store at Taylor.

Miss McClaren is well known in Cameron. She attended school and graduated from the Cameron High school in 1918 and was quite a favorite among her class mates. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. McClaren, one of Milam County's most prominent families. She also taught school in Thorndale and her friends everywhere will read with interest of the announcement of her marriage.
